PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 18 You shall reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period of up to 120 days. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility and shall participate in programs offered by the facility at the direction of the supervising officer.

CAUSE

Carl Lueth is scheduled to be released from the State of Washington Department of Corrections on October 18, 2010. At that time, it is anticipated Mr. Lueth will be transferred to the custody of the Pierce County Sheriff's Office. Once pending state probation violation matters have been resolved, he is expected to report to the U.S. Probation Office in Spokane, Washington, within 72 hours of release.

Recent contact with Mr. Lueth reveals that the above-mentioned placement at the residential reentry center (RRC) will assist with his overall adjustment. It is anticipated by allowing Mr. Lueth to participate at the RRC for the designated period, he will address mental health and chemical dependency issues while developing a release plan appropriate for transitional purposes. Carl Lueth signed the attached probation form 49 agreeing to participate at the RRC for up to 120 days. Essentially, he has requested placement at the RRC to develop a suitable release plan. If the Court concurs with the request for modification, the undersigned officer will facilitate placement upon his arrival in the Eastern District of Washington.

Please find attached a waiver of hearing to modify conditions of supervision, as well as the petition to modify the Court's order relative to the above-referenced offender.

It is respectfully recommended that the attached waiver of hearing to modify conditions of supervised release be adopted, allowing Carl Lueth to participate at the RRC for a period of up to 120 days or until discharged by the Court.
